FAVOR LAW TO STOP DESERTION

Compulsory Registration of Births Also Promised When Women Vote.

"Votes for better babies." This is the new slogan of the suffragists, adopted yesterday in honor of the queen of "Baby Week." Maternity insurance, compulsory registration of births, stricter main-tenance laws, cleaner milk and better schools are among the benefits women propose to bestow upon babies by means of their votes.

"It is primarily for the sake of their children that women want the vote anyway," said Mrs. Mary Ware Dennett, secretary of the National Woman Suffrage Association, yester-day. "We don't want the vote for day. "We don't want the vote for what we will get out of it ourselves, and we certainly wouldn't go to all this trouble for the sake of getting laws to help the men.

OBITUARY.

MORGAN BRANSBY WILLIAMS.

London, June 22.-Morgan Bransby Williams, who probably had more to do than any other man with the construction of the earlier railroads in the British Isles, died to-day. He also planned and built many of the Italian railways as well as thousands of miles of the Russian lines.

Wales, and after retiring from the engineering profession was for twenty years vice-chairman of the Metropoli-tan Bank of England and Wales. He was educated at Cowbridge Grammar School and began his career as a mining engineer, but became a civil engineer. He was engaged on the construction of the L. & N. W. Pailway, the Caladanian Pailway. Railway, the Caledonian Railway and the L. & S. W. Railway. He received several marks of favor from Czar Alexander II while engaged on con-struction work in Russia, and for ome time he was general manager the Dunaburg & Witepsk Rail-

Russian government.

After retiring from business Mr.
Williams took an active part in the public life of South Wales. He was
